DETAILED ACTION

Status of Claims

1. Claims 18-63, 66 and 68-71 are cancelled. Claims 1-17, 64-65 and 67 are pending. 1

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 6, drawn to a method of treating a subject with the administration of a A class CpG immunostimulatory oligonucleotide.

Group II, claim(s) 7, drawn to a method of treating a subject with the administration of a B class CpG immunostimulatory oligonucleotide.

Group III, claim(s) 8 and 64-65, drawn to a method of treating a subject with the administration of a C class CpG immunostimulatory oligonucleotide.

Group IV, claim(s) 67, drawn to a method of treating a subject comprising contacting peripheral blood mononuclear cells from a subject with a CpG immunostimulatory oligonucleotide and re-infusing the cells into the subject.

3. The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The special technical feature of Groups I-III is the particular class of CpG oligonucleotides. For Group I, it is the A class oligonucleotide, B and C class oligonucleotides for Groups II-III, respectively. In the instant case, no significant structural similarity can readily be ascertained from each of the different classes of oligonucleotides. Additionally, as differentiated by their separate classification, each of the listed oligonucleotides is expected to have different immunostimulatory activity. Thus, in the absence of shared special technical feature, the inventions lack unity with one another.

4. The inventions listed as Groups I-III and IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: For these two groups, the special technical feature of each group is their respective active method steps. The inventions of Groups I-III requires the active step of administering an oligonucleotide to a subject, whereas, the invention of Group IV requires contacting peripheral blood mononuclear cells from a subject with a CpG immunostimulatory oligonucleotide and re-infusing the cells into the subject. These active steps differ from one another. Hence, the inventions do not share a special technical feature. Thus, in the absence of shared special technical feature, the inventions lack unity with one another.

5. Claims 1-5 and 9-17 link(s) inventions I-III. The restriction requirement among the linked inventions is subject to the nonallowance of the linking claim(s), claims 1-5 and 9-17. Upon the indication of allowability of the linking claim(s), the restriction requirement as to the linked inventions shall be withdrawn and any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) will be rejoined and fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104 Claims that require all the limitations of an allowable linking claim will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

Applicant(s) are advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, the allowable linking claim, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application. Where a restriction requirement is withdrawn, the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 121 are no longer applicable. In re Ziegler, 443 F.2d 1211, 1215, 170 USPQ 129, 131-32 (CCPA 1971). See also MPEP § 804.01.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Emily Le whose telephone number is (571) 272 0903.

The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday, 8 am - 5:30 pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Bruce R. Campell can be reached on (571) 272-0974. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
